Introduction

Public Bodies 2008 provides a summary of the non-departmental public body (NDPB) sector as at 31 March 2008. It also provides statistical information on the number and diversity of public appointments.

What is Public Bodies?

Public Bodies has been published annually by the Cabinet Office since 1980 and provides a consistent measure on the size, spend and membership of the NDPB sector. Public Bodies also provides statistical information on those appointed to the boards of NDPBs and to other national public bodies. The information in Public Bodies 2008 covers NDPBs sponsored by UK Government Departments and public appointments made to UK public bodies. Information on public bodies and public appointments in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland is a matter for the devolved administrations.

Public Bodies 2008 does not contain detailed information on each public body. Each Government Department publishes information on their own public bodies on an annual basis.

What is a NDPB?

An NDPB is defined as a “body which has a role in the processes of national Government, but is not a Government Department or part of one, and which accordingly operates to a greater or lesser extent at arm’s length from Ministers”.

There are four types of NDPB:

- Executive NDPBs – typically established in statute and carrying out executive, administrative, regulatory and/or commercial functions. Examples include the Environment Agency, Regional Development Agencies and our national museums and galleries;
- Advisory NDPBs – provide independent, expert advice to Ministers on a wide range of issues. Examples include the Low Pay Commission and the Committee on Standards in Public Life;
- Tribunal NDPBs – have jurisdiction in a specialised field of law. Examples include Valuation Tribunals; and

- Independent Monitoring Boards of Prisons, Immigration Removal Centres and Immigration Holding Rooms – formerly known as Boards of Visitors, these are independent “watchdogs” of the prison system. Their duty is to satisfy themselves as to the state of prison and certain immigration premises, their administration and the treatment of prisoners.

Summary

Non-Departmental Public Bodies (NDPBs)

Numbers

As at 31 March 2008, there were 790 NDPBs sponsored by the UK Government. These comprise 198 Executive NDPBs, 410 Advisory NDPBs, 33 Tribunal NDPBs and 149 Independent Monitoring Boards of Prisons, Immigration Removal Centres and Immigration Holding Rooms.

This compares to 827 NDPBs in 2007. Since 1997, the total number of NDPBs has fallen by 67 (7.8%). The Government keeps the need for existing bodies under close review. New NDPBs are only set up when it can be clearly demonstrated that the NDPB model is the most efficient and effective model to deliver the function in question.

More information on the number of NDPBs, including a breakdown by Government Department, is provided in Table 1. A list of all NDPBs as at 31 March 2008 is attached at Annex A.

Staffing

As at 31 March 2008, there were just over 92,500 people employed by Executive NDPBs. With the exception of the Health and Safety Commission, the Health and Safety Executive and ACAS (the Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service), all Executive NDPBs are non-Crown bodies. As such, staff are not civil servants. More details are provided in Table 2.

Advisory and Tribunal NDPBs, and Independent Monitoring Boards, rarely employ their own staff. They are usually supported by civil servants from the sponsoring Government Department.

Expenditure

In 2007/08, total expenditure by Executive NDPBs was nearly £43bn. Of this, around £34.5bn was funded directly by Government. The remainder was financed through a combination of fees and charges, levies and other sources of funding (such as National Lottery or EU grants). A breakdown of expenditure is provided in Table 3.

Advisory and Tribunal NDPBs, and Independent Monitoring Boards, rarely generate their own expenditure. They are usually supported, and resourced, by their sponsoring Department.

Public Appointments

Numbers

For the purposes of Public Bodies 2008, public appointments are appointments, usually made by a Minister or by The Queen on the advice of a Minister, to the boards of national public bodies. This includes NDPBs, NHS bodies (i.e. Primary Care Trusts, NHS Trusts, Strategic Health Authorities and other NHS bodies) and key national public corporations.

As at 31 March 2008, there were around 18,500 men and women serving on the boards of around 1,200 public bodies.

Merit

Appointments made by Ministers to the boards of executive and advisory NDPBs, NHS bodies and national public corporations are made in line with the Code of Practice issued by the Commissioner for Public Appointments. The Code requires a fair and open process, delivers independent scrutiny and ensures that appointments are made on merit. The Commissioner for Public Appointments, Janet Gaymer CBE QC, is responsible for monitoring compliance with the Code and reports annually on public appointments made under the Code.

Diversity

The Government is committed to improving diversity on the boards of public bodies. The overall aim is to secure equal representation of men and women, pro rata representation of members of ethnic minority groups and increased participation of disabled people.

As at 31 March 2008:

- 33.3% of public appointments were held by women;
- 5.7% of public appointments were held by members of minority ethnic groups; and
- 5% of public appointments were held by disabled people.

Tables 4, 5 and 6 provide more detail.
