decades in different capacities covering several geographical and social strata of Sri Lanka. I have participated in large number of overseas trainings and international events. Furthermore, I have provided my expertise service in the form of consultancy to different international organizations such as AUSAID, IUCN, UNDP, and UN-CBD.

I represented Sri Lanka in the APFNet Council as the Council Member from 2014 – 2017. During my tenure as the Council Member, one project proposal was submitted for grant funding and already approved for implementation from 2018. One thematic training workshop as well as a Council and a Board Meeting were also hosted in Sri Lanka.

Most Asian countries (South Asia in particular) already experiencing adverse impacts of climate change in the form of prolonged droughts in one hand and floods and landslides on the other hand. Rehabilitation of degraded forests and sustainable management of forest resources is of vital importance for the mitigation of global climate change as well as for the adaptation of climate change impacts. Pledges and commitments expressed by the international community and funding windows such as Green Climate Fund has created opportunities for developing and least develop countries to make use of available international funding to address those issues.

During the past few years, APFNet has generated vast knowledge base by building networks, implementing pilot projects, as well as conducting thematic trainings with the participation of eminent experts in the sector. Therefore, I strongly believe that APFNet could become the leading advocacy agency in the Asia Pacific region for developing and implementing all kinds of forestry sector programs for its member economies.

Professional
experience

From June 2016 - to date
Additional Secretary (Environment Policy & Planning)
Ministry of Mahaweli Development and Environment

As the Additional Secretary in-charge for Environment Policy and Planning, I am assisting the Secretary by having an overall supervision on all matters related to environment policy as well as different projects and programs implemented by the Ministry. It includes policy reforms and implementation modalities as well as planning, designing, implementing, and monitoring of all environment related projects and programs of the government of Sri Lanka.

I am entrusted to supervise and guide five major divisions of the Ministry, namely Biodiversity Secretariat, Climate Change Secretariat, Environment Pollution Control & Chemical Management Division, Environment Planning & Economics Division, and Policy Planning & Operations Division.

I represent the Ministry in many national and international forums. I also serve as a board member of Sri Lanka Climate Fund and National Cleaner Production Centre.

In addition to my general duties as Additional Secretary, since January 2018, I have been appointed to cover up the duties of the Chairman, Central Environment Authority as well.

From Feb 2014 - May 2016
Conservator of Forests (Planning and Monitoring)
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

As the in-charge of the Planning and Monitoring Division of the Forest Department, I was holding the responsibility for long-term and short-term planning of projects and programs of the Forest Department. My responsibility ranged from providing technical and policy guidance at the senior management level, and to the preparation of forest-wise strategic management plans at the field level.

In addition, I was responsible for the overall monitoring of all the projects and programs implemented by the Forest Department. It included several donor funded projects such as Sri Lanka Community Forestry Program funded by the Australian Government, and Sri Lanka UN-REDD+ Readiness Program, as well as many national level forestry development programs carried out under the national budget.

I was entrusted to represent Forest Department in many policy and planning level forums both at the national level as well as at the international level.

Professional
(contd.)

I served as the Council Member representing Sri Lanka in the APFNet since 2015 – 2017

From Feb 2004 – Jan 2014

Regional Deputy Conservator of Forests, Central Uva Region,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Central – Uva region of the Forest Department consists of two out of nine provinces of the country and includes five administrative districts.

As the in-charge of the Central Uva Region, I held the responsibility of the overall supervision and management of forestry activities carried out by the department in the region. My duties include planning, implementation, supervision, and financial management of all the forestry activities carried out in the region, including Forest Restoration and Silviculture, Forest Inventory & management, Social Forestry & Extension, Forest Protection and Law Enforcement, Forestry Research, Education and Capacity Building etc. I was also responsible for the coordination of planning and implementation of various donor funded projects in the region.

In addition to the above, as the Regional Deputy Conservator, I was entrusted with the preparation of strategic forest resource management plans for the districts in the region and also to prepare five year integrated operational plans for the Forest Ranges.

From April 2002 – Feb 2004

Divisional of Forest Officer, Badulla Division,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

As the Divisional Forest Officer, in charge of Badulla District, I was entrusted with all the forestry activities carried out in the division by the Forest Department including planning, implementation, supervision, and monitoring. The major donor funded project implemented in Badulla District during that period was the Asian Development Bank assisted Forest Resource Management Project. Under that project I was intensely involved with the development and implementation of the Strategic Forest Management plan for the district, operational management plans for forests and plantations, as well as working with communities to improve their participation in natural resource management.

From Aug 2000 - April 2002
Divisional of Forest Officer, Kandy Division,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Duties and responsibilities during this period were very much similar to the above mentioned period

Professional
Experience

From Aug 1998 - Aug 2000
Deputy Project Director, Upper Watershed Development Project
Ministry of Forestry & Environment, Sri Lanka

The Upper Watershed Management Project was an Asian Development Bank funded project implemented by the Ministry of Environment and Natural Resources. The main objective of the project was to rehabilitate different kinds of degraded lands; both state and privately owned; in the Central Hill Country of Sri Lanka. It was operational in three districts covering four major upper watersheds of the country.

As the Deputy Project Director, I was in charge of project activities in three watershed areas where the main emphasis had been given to the restoration of degraded state lands including forests, while enhancing the livelihood of rural people. In addition, several soil and water conservation activities were also carried out in privately owned lands with the project assistance. I was involved with the task of coordinating multi-disciplinary stakeholders including different government agencies, NGOs, CBOs as well as rural people to achieve the project objectives. I gained substantial experience in working very closely with rural communities by planning and implementing various natural resource management activities with them while enhancing their livelihoods.

In addition to the field level planning and implementation, I was also heavily involved with project management activities at the central level. I was assisting the Project Director for various kinds of project related activities at the Project Management Unit including, designing and coordinating project advisory and review missions, organizing project steering committees, maintaining correspondence with the funding agency, coordinating consultant inputs, procurement of various goods and services according to the ADB guidelines etc.

From Feb 1998 - August 2000
Divisional of Forest Officer, Galle Division,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Duties and responsibilities during this period were very much similar to the duties mentioned for the period from 2002 - 2004.

From June 1996 - Feb 1998

Reading for the Master Degree in the Wageningen Agricultural University, The Netherlands

From Oct 1994 - June 1996
Divisional of Forest Officer, Kandy Division,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Professional

Similar duties mentioned above as a Divisional Forest Officer were performed during this period. The major donor funded project implemented in the Kandy Division during this period was the Asian Development Bank assisted Participatory Forestry Project. Various community forestry activities and tree planting models ranging from Farmers' Woodlots to home garden development, both in government as well as private lands were carried out with the full participation of the local communities.

From June 1990 - June 1994
Divisional of Forest Officer, Nuwara Eliya Division,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Similar duties mentioned above as a Divisional Forest Officer were performed during this period. The major donor funded project implemented in Nuwara Eliya Division during that period was the British ODA assisted Forest Sector Development Project. Timber production as well as conservation oriented reforestation programs, Silvicultural management of forest plantations were the major field oriented activities implemented under this project. In addition, development of Forest Management Plans for different forest plantation species in the district and various tools and manuals for forestry operations were carried out during this period with the collaboration of project consultants. I also worked as one of the key resource persons for various capacity building programs implemented during the project period targeting forestry officials.

From January 1989 - June 1990
Additional Divisional Forest Officer, Kurunegala Division,
Forest Department Sri Lanka

Assisting Divisional Forest Officer for the general management activities. In addition, involved as one of the team leader in the country-wide forest plantation inventory and mapping program conducted under the World Bank assisted Forest Resources Development Project.

From Feb 1987 - January 1989
Assistant Conservator of Forests,
Forest Department, Sri Lanka

Reading for the Master Degree, University of Sri Jayawardenepura, Sri Lanka

From Jan 1986 - January 1987
Demonstrator/Assistant Lecturer, Department of Botany, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka.

I was mainly involved with the organizing and conducting tutorial and practical classes for the undergraduates.

Qualifications and Experience:

- More than 35 years practical experience in the design and implementation of sustainable forestry development projects in Latin America and elsewhere, of which 25 are at the international level (ITTO, 1992-2016).
- Excellent knowledge of current initiatives and processes related to sustainable forest management, forest concessions, certification, carbon credits, REDD+ and inhabilitation of degrade forest lands, illegal logging and trade and climate change mitigation and adaptation schemes.
- Currently maintain networks with all major organizations related to environment and sustainable development (FAO, UNFF, CBD, UNFCCC, GEF, CIFOR, IUCN, WWF, CI and others)
- Excellent knowledge of institutional structures related to forestry and the environment in Latin American countries and strong contacts in these institutions at both the political and technical levels. Very good knowledge and experience gained in tropical Africa and tropical Asia.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively in interdisciplinary teams, having monitored more than 500 professionals implementing 140 different forestry projects in Latin America and elsewhere for a total worth of over US$ 70 million.
- National Forest and Wildlife Service (SERFOR) Perú. Executive Director since 2016. Overall management of the Peruvian National Forest and Wildlife Service, reporting directly to the Peruvian Minister of Agriculture and Irrigation (MINAGRI), ensuring compliance with its policies, plans and strategies.

Vision

My vision of the governance and operation of APFNet is framed within a policy of promoting sustainable forestry development in emerging or developing countries, where financing for silvicultural activities, harvesting and primary and secondary transformation of the timber, and the rehabilitaton of degraded forest lands is quite limited. On the other hand, it is about promoting not only the use of timer resources but also all those non-timber products and envirionmental services that can contribute especially to the food security of the poorest populations, as well as improving their income to alleviate their living conditions.

Qualifications, experience and skills that would add value to APFNet Board of Directors, and nominee's vision to APFNet governance and operations (one extra page can be added).
The qualifications, experience and skills I believe I would bring to APFNet: 10 years working on sustainable forestry projects in the region, including 7 years as part of the Responsible Asia Forestry & Trade (RAFT) partnership management team, which has given me extensive experience managing a regional partnership and knowledge sharing forum; working with government, business and communities across several APFNet member countries; and, testing, learning from and adapting various approaches to increase the area of forest that is sustainably managed through on the ground capacity building, as well both policy reform/development and market opportunities to drive better practices on the ground. This has provided me with an extensive regional network including a wide range of stakeholders, and through this a diversity of experiences and perspectives about forestry in the Asia Pacific region that enables me to think about the challenges facing forestry and potential solutions in a holistic way, informed with practical realities on the ground. I have been a member of the AFPNet Council since its creation, so I know the organization and its history well. I am excited about a lot of the great work that has been done so far, I see considerable potential for AFPNet to take an even larger role as a regional hub for knowledge generation and improved policy through practical insights and would be very pleased to be part of its continued growth and evolution.

My vision for AFPNet is:

1. That it can continue to deepen and expand its contributions and establishment of a regional leader in forest restoration/rehabilitation and forestry education in particular (2 key areas where I think AFPNet has excelled and for which I believe there is a growing need in the region).
2. That it may regard its vast number of pilot project through which much is being learned as a laboratory and valuable source of sound practical insights, and use these to inform the development of the appropriate regulatory frameworks/policies to address key barriers to and enable expansion and replication of proven techniques.
3. That it can provide a forum for open and thoughtful discussion of the range of methods and approaches being applied to advance sustainable forest management and rehabilitation across the region.

Qualifications, experience and skills that would add value to APFNet Board of Directors, and nominee's vision to APFNet governance and operations (one extra page can be added).

Qualification, experience and skills: .

I have an extremely diverse academic and experience profile enabling me to address a wide array of issues in an integrated manner. Of particular relevance are:

- Multi-disciplinary academic background - Bachelor's degree in Zoology, Post-Graduate Diploma in Forestry, M.Phil in Applied Economics and Ph.D. in Forest Economics.
- Over 45 years of experience in forestry in various capacities with national and international organizations. This includes: (a) 20 years with the Indian Forest Service (in positions such as Divisional Forest Officer with the Kerala Forest Department, Forest Economist and later as Director at the Kerala Forest Research Institute and as Deputy Inspector General of Forests, in charge of forestry research and education and forest policy at the Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India), (b) 20 years with the Food and Agriculture Organization in various capacities, (including as Forest Economist in Sudan, Senior Programme Advisor (Forestry Research Support Programme for Asia-Pacific, , Bangkok), and at the Forestry Department, FAO Headquarters, Rome, as Senior Forestry Officer (Economic Analysis), Chief of the Planning and Statistics Branch, Chief of the Forest Economics Service and Chief Economist of the Forestry Department; (c) 1.5 years with the Kerala State Government as Executive Vice President of the Kerala State Council for Science, Technology and Environment and as the Principal Secretary, Science and Technology Department and (d) over 5 years as independent consultant with various organizations including FAO and APFNet undertaking different tasks.
- Ability to build institutions and networks. Played a lead role in building networks like APAFRI and TEAKNET and the development of institutions like the Kerala Forest Research Institute. Supported strategic planning and enhancing performance of various forestry research institutions.
- Ability to provide leadership for in-depth assessments and analysis. Spearheaded several FAO initiatives including the preparation of various global and regional forestry sector outlook studies (For example the Forestry Sector Outlook Study for Africa, Forestry Outlook Study for West and Central Asia, and Asia-Pacific Forestry Outlook Study II). I was the lead author of FAO's State of the World's Forests 2009. Currently I am facilitating the Asia- Pacific Forestry Sector Outlook Study III as Lead Consultant.
- Human resource development capacity: Provided leadership in developing training workshops: Since 2013 I have been responsible for designing and implementing the FAO Executive Forest Policy Courses. From 2014 onwards I have been involved in designing and implementing the APFNet Thematic Workshops.
- Development of programmes and projects: Facilitated the development of APFNet's project "Integrated planning and management of forest ecosystems in the Greater Mekong Sub-region". Also supported the development of the concept note on the Asia Pacific Forestry Planning Network of APFNet and facilitated the workshop held in Bangkok in January 2017.
- Excellent understanding of the current and emerging issues in economic development and management of natural resources in particular forests at the national, regional and global levels.
- Ability to think holistically and to work effectively and efficiently in teams with people from very diverse backgrounds.

- I have authored over 100 reports and publications dealing with different aspects of natural resource management and economic development with particular focus on forestry.

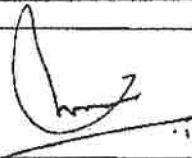

My vision on APFNet

During the last 10 years APFNet has built a solid foundation to support rehabilitation and sustainable management of forests. Considering the urgency of tackling climate change and rebuilding natural capital, APFNet will have a pre-eminent role in developing new technologies and enabling rapid adoption of these technologies through a wide array of interventions. Specifically this will require:

- Focus on those areas in which APFNet has a comparative advantage;
- Strengthen collaboration with other international organizations and national institutions;
- Continue to support human resources and strengthen networking among the professionals
- Support member economies to demonstrate on the ground new and emerging technologies especially in rehabilitation/ restoration of degraded areas and integrated management of natural resources adopting a landscape approach.
- Provide timely advice and support to different stakeholders to improve their decisions on the managing forests and other natural resources.

The APFNet governance arrangements need to be reviewed and strengthened to ensure that it develops as a highly adaptable and efficient organization enabling it to provide efficient support to its main stakeholders.
