

WOAH Regional Workshop on animal movement and border control in Asia and the Pacific Chiba, Japan, 1-3 July 2025

Day 1 summary

Mana Nakata, Woah RRAP intern

Opening remarks

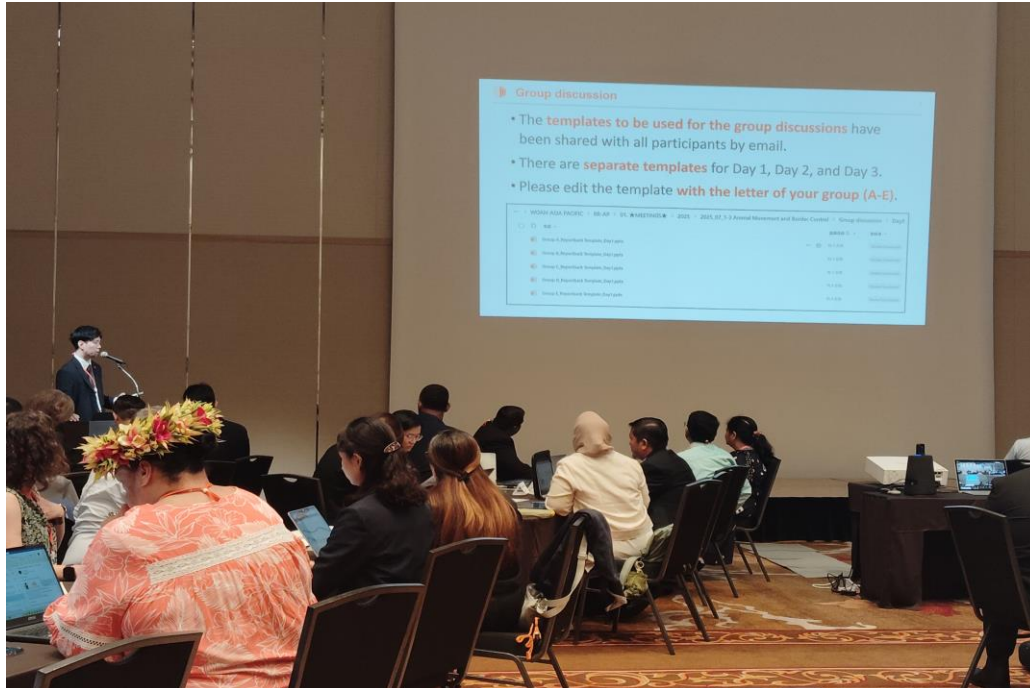

Technical session 1: Understanding the Current Landscape and Meeting Objectives

Workshop introduction and objectives (Dr. Shohei)

- The aim of this workshop
- The objectives

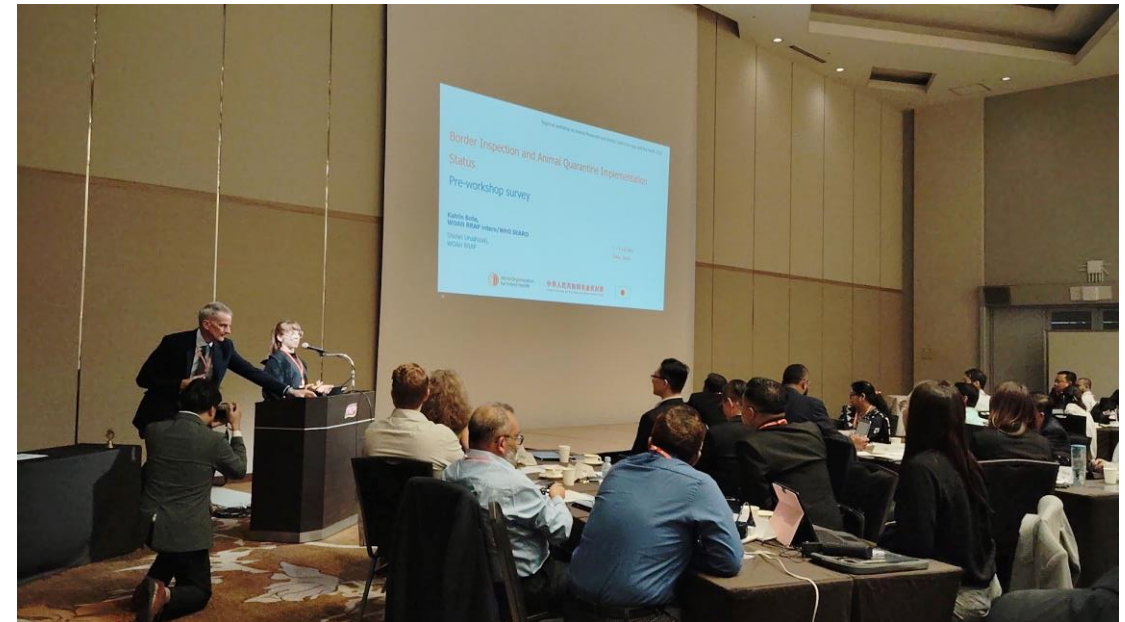

Insight from Performance for Veterinary Services (PVS) Pathway on border inspection and animal quarantine (Dr. Maho, Dr. Megumi intern)

Technical Session 2: Information sharing on Border Inspection and Animal Quarantine

WOAH standards related to implementation of Border inspection and Animal quarantine (Dr. Phil Widders)

Analysis of Pre-workshop Survey Results (Border inspection and Animal quarantine (Dr. Katrin intern))

Technical Session 2: Information sharing on Border Inspection and Animal Quarantine

- Member presentations – Fiji, Bangladesh, Maldives, Hong Kong, Sri Lanka, Myanmar

Technical Session 3: Border Inspection and Animal Quarantine: Gaps, challenges and solution

- Group discussion

Group A - Illegal international trade

Group B - – No legal framework/basis to impose penalties

Group C - Limited resource

Group D - Smuggled animals

Group E - Lack of manpower

Thank you

Mana Nakata

WOAH RRAP intern